

Don't ignore any of these symptoms

It could be cervical cancer.
Finding cancer early can save lives.

Increased or foul-smelling
vaginal
discharge

Bleeding
between periods, after sex
or after periods
have stopped
permanently

Persistent pain in the back, legs, or pelvis

Weight loss,
feeling constantly
tired or loss of appetite

Pain during sex or vaginal discomfort

Visit your local clinic or community health worker even if you are not worried.